

TEAM BC LT Update #4 December 2018

Welcome to the fourth update for the Racing to Red Deer process for TEAM BC Long Track. This will be the last newsletter prior to the TEAM BC Long Track Selection Trials. This newsletter also includes the final list of athletes that have qualified to participate in the TEAM BC Long Track Selection Trials, following the CanAm competition in Calgary, and an updated bye ranking list following both CanAm and the November Time Trials in Calgary.

The final selection of TEAM BC will be made on Friday December 14, 2018 and will be announced via a posting to the BCSSA website.

There is also a Team Pursuit Camp planned for December 10, 2018, following the TEAM BC Long Track Selection Trials, in Fort St. John. This camp is mandatory for all skaters who have provisionally qualified for TEAM BC Long Track, however all skaters who have competed in the TEAM BC Long Track Selection Trials are welcome, and encouraged, to attend.

As per the TEAM BC Long Track selection bulletin the top 5 athletes are eligible to request a bye, if necessary.

Upcoming LT events

Participation in the Prince George Long Track Interclub on January 12, 2019 has been added as a recommendation for the athletes that qualify for TEAM BC Long Track as an opportunity to race outdoors. There are ever reducing opportunities to race Long Track outdoors in recent years and since the Canada Winter Games in Red Deer will be outdoor racing this will “refresh” your memories!

If you have any questions about long track, about the final remaining designated R2RD event, the TEAM BC Long Track Selection Bulletin, or any other related topic, please feel free to reach out to any of the members of the TEAM BC Long Track Coaching team, Adam, Ariana or Jennifer.
